

Tuesday, September 29

11.00 am-12.30 pm EDT/ 4.00-5.30 pm BST/ 5.00-6.30 pm CEST

Thursday, October 1

11.00 am-12.30 pm EDT/ 4.00-5.30 pm BST/ 5.00-6.30 pm CEST

Classics Department, University of Florida & Suncoast Digital Classics
Consortium

Inclusive Classics: Eos-READS for Black Lives Matter

REGISTER
NOW BY CLICKING
HERE

Online Event: Zoom

Day 1: Panel Discussion & Open Discussion

Panelists:

- Amy Daniels, Stellenbosch University, South Africa
- Usama Gad, Ain Shams University, Egypt
- Jackie Murray, University of Kentucky, Classics, African American & Africana Studies, Gender & Women Studies

Day 2: Open Discussion (moderated by the panelists)

The panel discussion and the open discussions of both days will focus on the following texts in order to apply their insights and critiques to the everyday fight against anti-Blackness and White supremacy needed in the academy and beyond:

- Frantz Fanon's "Concerning Violence" from The Wretched of the Earth (1961) and
- Margo Hendricks' "Coloring the Past, Rewriting Our Future: RaceB4Race" (2019) .

You will receive the Zoom links and copies of the readings upon registration.